

Homework 9

Write code for the Hough Transform from scratch to detect coins in the given image.

The output should be a binary mask highlighting the regions covered by the coins

